

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Queer Things That Have Just Happened, Condensed From Press Reports In From All Quarters.

Red-Haired Girls an Asset.

Red-haired girls are a business asset, according to Edward Hines, manager of a restaurant in Chicago, and he is going to try to have only red-haired waitresses, all his advertisements for help of this kind specifying they must be red headed.

Customers like to look upon a head of flaming red hair," he explained. "A restaurant with none but red-haired girls would soon become famous."

Altered Gown Romance.

One of the claims made by Miss Ethel McKee, a stenographer, who is suing Prof. G. H. Crain, of Ottawa, Kan., for $20,000 damages for alleged breach of promise, is that she had to alter her wedding gown four times.

She says he kept putting the wedding dress from season to season, and each time she had to have the nuptial gown changed to meet the demands of fashion. Then Prof. Crain married another girl.

Pullet Lays Ten-ounce Egg

It Bursen Bell's leghorn pullet keeps off the job at his home in Irvington, N. J., his expenses for edibles will be greatly reduced.

He has an egg eight and one-quarter inches long, six and one-half inches around and weighing ten ounces, that the pullet laid yesterday.

Blond Girls Preferred.

Men have always favored blondes as far back as there is any record, asserts Dr. Charles Ellwood, professor of sociology at the University of Missouri.

He declared in a lecture that the blond type of woman has been developed by a long selective process due to man's favoring her over her darker-skinned and haired sisters.

"Silence" Raises Cash.

Many unique methods are used by students to raise funds for the Wellesley College building improvements, almost $100,000 being on hand already.

One way is by the "silence" party. Each undergraduate who studies is fined one cent, a laugh costs her five cents and talking a dime. Any girl caught whispering about the college is fined.

Show Leg for $2,000? No!

Rather than show her leg to a jury in an East St. Louis Court Mrs. Minnie Dillman withdrew and ran the risk of losing her $2,000 suit against the street railway company.

She alleges she was hurt in an accident. When the railroad attorney asked her to have her leg as an exhibit she refused and fainted.

Wife's Name Crazes Him.

When John Hansel, fifty, was arraigned in court at St. Louis for disturbing the peace Dr. C. A. Heberich of the City Hospital staff testified that every time Hansel heard his wife's name mentioned he became temporarily insane.

"Otherwise," said the doctor, "Hansel is perfectly normal." The prisoner was acquitted.

Stover Bars Rabbit-Calf.

Walter Kaasing of Norwich, N. Y., has written to offer Park Commissioner Stover his rabbit-calf for the menagerie, but the freak has been declined.

The calf has a tail like a rabbit and instead of walking like an ordinary calf it hops about like a rabbit.

lived several years beyond that age. Surely no one would suggest that elephants should be killed when they reach twenty-five.

"Old Smiler" the two-jointed rhinoceros at the Zoo is thirty-eight years old and Nellie, a Cape buffalo, is more than thirty.

Bronx Republicans to Entertain.

The Union Republican Club of the Bronx has made elaborate preparations for its annual entertainment and reception to be held at Elding's Casino, One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street and St. Ann's avenue, Jan. 31.

Frederick H. Drexler is chairman of the committee on arrangements. It is expected that William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the State Committee, will lead the grand march.

Swissco a Marvelous Hair Producer

Stops Baldness, Dandruff and Scalp Dis-ease and Restores Gray or Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

Look! What Swissco Did!

Swissco produces astounding results so quickly it has amazed those who have used it. We will prove it to you if you will send us a postal note and we will send you a trial bottle and our wonderful testimonials.

There is no excuse for baldness. Write today to Swissco Hair Remedy Co., 2484 P. O. Square, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Swissco is on sale at all druggists and drug departments at $1.00 a bottle.

For sale and recommended in New York by all Riker and Huggan stores, Ricker Pharmacy, Cassell Mower Co., Siegel Cooper & Co., the 14th Street Store, Macy's, Simpson Crawford, & Albert, 1120th st. and Lenox st.

It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Bob Hurton growled a reply, but his utterance was thick.

Snyder raised the Winchester to his shoulder and, taking careful aim, fired at spot, a hyena, whose doom had been sealed yesterday, when the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggested to Park Commissioner Stover that all animals in the menagerie over the age of twenty-five should be killed.

Snyder's aim was true. Shouldering the Winchester, again, Snyder sent a bullet crashing through the skull of Kity another hyena, whose latter days had been filled with misery.

"There was nothing the matter with Spot except that he was too healthy," vowed Snyder. "Poor Kity—she's better off, though!"

Menagerie Director Smith does not agree, entirely, with the suggestion of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"It is true that twenty-five years is a very old age for some animals, but it would not be right to end the life of all our animals at that age," he said.

"We have had lions here who have lived over thirty years and rhinoceroses have been killed with misery."

Charge Accounts and Deposit Charge Accounts Will Be Continued by the New Greenhut-Siegel Cooper Company

IN EIGHT DAYS—On Saturday Evening, February Fourth

OUR CLOSING OUT SALE WILL END

Stock or no stock, the doors will close at 6 P. M. on February Fourth. That will give the men who are to rearrange and beautify this building for its new and larger purposes just time to have the premises ready at the time agreed upon.

Even now the song of the hammer and saw are heard on the upper floors with their portent of the fast approaching closing day and the very short time in which we have to sell out this great stock of merchandise.

We want to close our doors upon a store practically sold out of merchandise and the repricing of various condensed lots in every department, offering greater and greater bargain attractions each day, is our way of making doubly sure of quick selling.

Good as it all is, we don't want to carry merchandise over into the new organization as The Siegel Cooper Building already has big departments of the same general line of merchandise. It would make stocks too heavy, and, besides, we want to start the entire new enterprise with entirely new stocks.

The selling is being pushed forward with greater vigor than ever, and the character of the bargains is best evidenced by the throngs of shoppers that continually fill the store.

Thousands of the wisest shoppers come every day or two because the continual and very rapid outlet—the tremendous selling, bring forward hundreds of new bargains almost every hour.

We cannot repeat too often our urgent invitation to every prudent woman to take full advantage of the extraordinary money-saving opportunities this swiftly passing event provides.

It is the biggest sale of its kind in ten years or more—forty-eight departments are represented, including all sorts of Dry Goods and Ready-to-Wear Apparel, and in all of them is the new, high grade, trustworthy merchandise that you have always purchased from Greenhut and Company.

Again---Don't Miss This Great Sale Under Any Circumstances---Don't Wait for the Last Few Crowded Days

Double 3X Green Trading Stamps With All Cash or Charge Purchases Until Noon. Single Stamps After Noon

Greenhut and Company

Sixth Avenue, 18th to 19th Street, New York City Store Formerly Occupied by B Altman & Co

1 OFF
Every remaining Suit and Overcoat of the current season now on-hand, including black and blue.
The HILTON CO.
210-221 Broadway, Broadway, cor. 57th St.
Pulton, cor. Smith St., Brooklyn.
701 Broad St., Newark.
Also Boston and Philadelphia.

World Wants Work Wonders

LIBERAL CREDIT TO ALL
J. BAUMANN & BRO
PER WEEK DELIVERS THIS ENTIRE DINING ROOM (as illustrated) TO YOUR HOME. A Pair of Handmade Gilt Frame Pictures Free with this Dining Room Suite

This Entire Dining Room Suite, as Illustrated, Value $80.00 at $41.98
Sideboard in genuine American quartered oak, golden finish, handsomely carved, with large level plate mirror; 2 small drawers, 1 lined; 1 large drawer.
4 Dining Chairs, in oak, golden finish, carved backs and cane seats. Value $20.00 each, at $10.98
J. Rooms Completely Furnished $75
4 Rooms Completely Furnished $125
5 Rooms Completely Furnished $150
The China Closet is, in golden oak, full swell front and bent glass ends. Value $25.00, at $18.98
The Dining Table is of golden oak; has pedestal base; 4 heavy cast feet; 6 feet extension; extra leaves. Value $20.00, at $13.98
WRITE for our NEW CATALOGUE containing We Pay Freight OUR LIBERAL CREDIT! TERMS apply also to information regarding & Railroad Fare Long Island, New Jersey and Connecticut.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS
84th ST. & 3rd AVE. "L" STATION AT CORNER

"FOLLOW THE CROWD" into The World's "Want" columns.

O'NEILL-ADAMS & CO
1868 Established 43 Years 1911
6th Ave., 20th to 22d St.

Pure Groceries That Conform to Government Standards
Adams Building—Basement
We reserve the right to limit quantities.
Phone your orders to Chelsea 5700

Condensed Milk
Borden's Malted Brand Condensed Milk, sold elsewhere at 12c per tin, this sale, 9c
Armour's Hams
The Helmet Brand, fresh smoked sugar cured, a standard of high grade quality, (net weights), per lb. 15c

Miscellaneous Items.
Long's 40c. Preserves, whole fruit in jars 20 ounce jars: Strawberry, Raspberry, Loganberry, Peach, Blackberry, or Red Cherries, each 25c
Golden Gate Peaches, finest from California, large No. 3 tins, per dozen, $3.25; each 28c
Golden Gate Cherries, finest from California, large No. 3 tins, per dozen, $3.25; each 28c
Golden Gate Pears, finest from California, large No. 3 tins, per dozen, $3.25; each 28c
Surely Corn—Fancy Maine quality No. 2 tins, per dozen, $1.25; each 11c
Puffed Rice—Large, delicious fruit, appetizing, 25c quality; this sale, per lb. 18c
Surely Tomatoes—Solid, packed, red, five tomatoes, $1.17; 3 tins, per dozen, $11.75; each 11c
Pickled Cantelepe, Mrs. Hardcastle's 25c
Bear Asparagus—Medium white spears, tender quality, No. 2 1/2 tins, per dozen, $2.00; each 25c
Peeled Asparagus—The Best Monte, No. 2 1/2 tins, per dozen, $2.00; each 25c
Queen Olives La Bevillana Brand, in No. 2 bottles, 25c
Sardines in Tomato—The Crown Brand, smoked; per dozen, large 15c
Larger Size—Fancy quality, Smyrna lay, 12 1/2c
Delicatessen Dept.
Boned Chicken, Richard-son & Robbins, new season's pack, No. 1 tins 50c; 1/2 tins, 28c
Pate de Foie Gras, in individual tins, the Louis Brand, each 30c
Caviar, high grade Russian, 1/4 tins, 45c; 1/2 tins, 23c
Lamb's Tongues, Derby's Pickled, quart glass 38c
Spaghetti, neat and Chilli, Armour's; No. 1 tins 50c; pint, 9c
Sturgeon, fresh smoked, per lb. 60c
Hologan, Ham or 17c
Beef, per lb. 24c
Cheese, Royal Luncheon, in 25c porcelain jars, per lb. 21c
Swiss, Imported, per lb. 31c
Roquefort, Imported, per lb. 43c
Munster Style—Per lb. 22c
Edam—Each 95c
New York State—Full cream; per lb. 20c
Pineapple—Each 39c
Pecan—in glass jars 14c
Serrano—Per 10c
Smoked Beef—Per lb. 27c
Boned Ham—Per lb. 29c
Corned Beef—Per lb. 29c
Salmon—Columbia River steaks; 1-lb. flat tins, 50c; 1/2 lb. 13c

Cereal Specials
Barley—(Pine); 19c three pounds, 19c
Barley—(Coarse); five pounds, 19c
Farina—Five pounds, 23c
New Lentils—Extra large; 5 pounds, 19c
New Lentils—Extra large; 5 pounds, 19c
Green Kern—Two pounds, 21c
Poa Beans—N. Y. State; 5 pounds, 24c
Fresh Elgin Creamery, 1-lb. prints, 28c
Lowest Price in Town.
Domino Sugar
Havemeyer & Elder's Crystal Domino, in 5-lb. cartons, sold elsewhere at 45c; this sale, 35c
Spratt's Cakes
Dog or Puppy Biscuits—50c pkgs. 38c
35c pkgs. 22c
10c pkgs. 8c
Butter
Fresh Elgin Creamery, 1-lb. prints, 28c
Lowest Price in Town.
Gold Medal Flour
Washburn Crosby's Best, 54 1/2 lb. bags, $6.40
24 1/2 lb. bags, 80c

A Bugle Call to the Great Army of Men who pay from $20 to $30 for Overcoat or Suit
Overcoats & Suits, selling regularly up to $30, are now $18.50
Overcoats & Suits, selling regularly up to $22, now $13.50
Silk lined dressy vicuna overcoats; kerseys in oxford, black, medium grays and semi-fancy weaves. Long overcoats with convertible collars, full worsted lined, many with satin over-lining on shoulders. Suits in blues & black, and mixtures.
Raiders will find lots to choose from,—several thousand overcoats and several thousand suits—the choicest product of the season at their original prices. It's our usual mid-winter clearance; but the values we've assembled for this occasion are unusual.

Brill Brothers
THE HOUSE OF BETTER VALUES
125TH STREET, At Third Ave.
47 CORTLAND ST., Near Greenwich.
UNION SQUARE, 14th St., Near B'way.